

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C. Dear Alec:

Enclosed I send you statement which I think is what you desire. I send you also telegram from Miss McGowen.

Nothing to record since you left, your father too comfortable in bed to go out for drive looks well and bright though some old friend from Brantford called but he was asleep. However he seemed so disappointed that I will invite him to dinner tomorrow.

Daisy and I drove out to Twin Oaks, Mamma was bright and about among her flowers. I cannot persuade her and Bissett of the superlative merits of my tent, and tent cloth. She said "well dear come some other time and tell me more about it" in a most hopelessly resigned voice. I think she thinks it's my hobby-horse, but other people are trying the same experiment, and apparently with the same results.

I wish you were home again and am as ever yours.
